Magnificent seven make up 2023 Class

Lorne Lasuita will be inducted into the 2023 class as a multi-sport builder. Lorne has been involved in 52 multi-sport events, including the 2004 Summer Olympics where he served as a volunteer Administration Officer on the Team Canada Mission Staff. He has represented Team Sask at 18 Canada Games and eight Western Canada Summer Games. Lorne has also been involved in all but one of the 25 Saskatchewan Games to date. He has served as a board member for Baseball Saskatchewan and Gymnastics Saskatchewan as well as coaching and officiating volleyball.

Bernadette McIntyre will be inducted in 2023 as a builder in the sport of curling. Bernadette served as Curl Regina Bid Committee Chairperson for numerous events including three Tim Hortons Briers, two Scott/Scotties Tournament of Hearts, the 2001 Canadian Olympic Curling Trials, the 2011 Men's World Curling Championships, and many more national and international events. In addition, she was the first woman to serve as president of a Brier host committee and was the first female president of the Saskatchewan Curling Association. Bernadette's contributions to sport in the province extend beyond the ice. She was part of the Grey Cup Festival Leadership Team in 2013 and 2022 and was the co-chair for the CP Women's Open LPGA event in Regina in 2018.

Noreen Murphy is being inducted as a builder in the sport of softball. Noreen was on the staff for Canada's national women's softball team for 14 years including being part of the staff at the 1996 Atlanta Olympic Games. She also served as the head coach of the national women's junior team. She coached Lorne's Lazars to eight consecutive provincial titles in different age groups in Saskatoon. Before that run of titles with the Lazars, Noreen coached the Lloydminster AAA Blues to consecutive Alberta provincial and national Midget Girls Under-19 championships.

Jaime (Cruickshank) Boyer excelled in multiple sports as a young athlete. She competed internationally in both power tumbling and trampoline as well as athletics before competing at the 2006 Turin Winter Olympic Games in bobsleigh. In total, she spent four years on the national women's bobsleigh team. She was a member of the first Canadian women's team to compete on the FIBT World Tour. Her Canada sled finished second in Lake Placid in 2006 with a world-record start time. Jaime qualified for four events at the 1998 World Age Group Power Tumbling and Trampoline Championship. Next, she set a Canadian record in 100-metre hurdles at the 2003 World Youth Track & Field Championships.

The Saskatchewan Sports Hall of Fame's 55th Induction Ceremony & Dinner, September 23, 2023 at the Conexus Arts Centre in Regina. Tickets are $110 and include a charitable receipt. Tickets can be purchased online, via telephone (306-780-9232), or email (sshfm@sasktel.net).

Ryan Getzlaf is a 2023 inductee as an athlete in hockey. Ryan is a two-time Olympic gold medal winner with the Canadian team at the 2010 Vancouver Olympics and again in 2014 in Sochi. He was also part of the team that won the 2005 IIHF World Junior Hockey Championship, scoring a goal and adding two assists in the gold medal game. Ryan won the World Cup of Hockey with Canada in 2016. Ryan won the Stanley Cup in 2007 as part of a 17-year National Hockey League career with the Anaheim Ducks. He is the Ducks' all-time leader in games played (1,157), assists (737), and points (1,017). He also had 282 career NHL goals. He also played 125 playoff games, scoring 37 goals and adding 83 assists for 120 points. He was the Ducks' captain from 2010 to 2022, the longest-serving captain in team history. He also played in three NHL all-star games.

Joan McEachern is an athlete who is being inducted as a soccer player. She was part of the Canadian women's soccer team that qualified for the FIFA Women's World Cup for the first time in 1995. Joan played 31 international matches for Canada, including three regional CONCACAF championships. She also represented Canada at two international tournaments in 1987 and 1988 before the first Women's World Cup was held. Some of Joan's best seasons came before the women's national team program existed. She won the Canada Soccer National Club Championship four times and was named the most valuable player of the 1985 tournament. She also was a founding member of the University of Saskatchewan Huskies club team in 1983-84 and was named the MVP of the first Canada West tournament in 1984.

Hayley Wickenheiser is one of the most decorated Canadian athletes of all time. The hockey legend is one of three women to have won four Olympic gold medals for Canada. She has also won an Olympic silver medal and represented Canada in softball at the 2000 Sydney Summer Olympics, making her a rare Summer and Winter Olympian. She also served as Canada's flag bearer at the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics. Hayley was on the national team for 24 years and is Canada's all-time leader in goals (168), assists (211), points (379), and games (276). She is also the all-time points leader (men or women) with 51 points in the Olympics. She holds the same honour at the IIHF world championships (38 goals, 46 assists, and 74 points) which she has also won seven times. Hayley became the first woman to play in a men's professional league in a position other than goaltender in 2002, spending three seasons in Finland and Sweden.
