

SAVE THE DATE

You are invited to our Communities in Bloom Workshop!

When: Tuesday, September 26, 2017

Registration begins 9:30 a.m.

Workshop 9:45 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Lunch provided.

Where: Firesong Resort—directions from Loon Lake—travel west on SK 699, once you are on gravel road continue 5km to Fowler Lake sign, turn left, drive until you see “Firesong—Welcome Home” sign, continue down road to the Gathering Place building.

Cost: Everyone attending is asked to bring a five gallon pail so you can create your own self watering container.

About the workshop:

- Firesong Story—what they are doing and information on their community partnerships
- Guided Tour of the Grounds—on site questions and answers, ideas on mulching and water saving, and gardening discussion
- Bonny Macnab, TLC Greenhouse—gardening, self watering containers and art project (completed in partnership with Saskatchewan Cultural Exchange)
- Andrew Exelby, Saskatchewan Parks and Recreation Association (SPRA) Parks and Open Spaces Consultant - Communities in Bloom

About the speakers:

- Bonny Macnab specializes in watercolor and carried her technique onto textiles using silk that provides another dimension to her work with the movement of the fabric. To access more information about Bonny Macnab and review additional works, visit her website at www.bonnymacnab.com. TLC Greenhouse is where the joys of painting and planting meet and where Bonny hosts planter and painting workshops.
- Andrew Exelby, SPRA Parks and Open Spaces Consultant and SK Communities in Bloom (CiB) coordinator will discuss how the CiB program can benefit your community as it relates to heritage conservation, community appearance, environmental action and overall community development.

Pre-registration is required by: September 22, 2017. Register by contacting Bonnie Mills Midgley, Community Development Coordinator:
